ITALIAN GANG BINDS AND ROBS AGED FARM COUPLE

GAIN ACCESS TO THE HOUSE UNDER PRETEXT OF BUYING FOOD.

Lapeer, Mich.—Threatening to kill them if they raised an outcry, five well-dressed Italians, believed to have come from Detroit, entered the farm house of Lemuel Kingsbury, an aged farmer, four miles south of Metamora the other night and, after securely tying Kingsbury and his wife, who are more than sixty years old, ransacked the house, secured silverware and other goods and left the premises.

The aged couple were found several hours later by Ira Vanderlip, a neighbor farmer. Mrs. Kingsbury is suffering from fright and is in a serious condition. After releasing the captives Mr. Vanderlip went to the village and notified Deputy Sheriff Henderson. The officer hurried to the farm and hastily obtaining a description went in the direction supposed to have been taken by the robbers. Three of them were rounded up. Henderson left them in charge of other farmers while he took up the chase for the others. He trailed them to a swamp and succeeded in capturing them. The officer, in company with Turnkey Elliott of the Lapeer Jail, returned to where the three were left, only to find that they had escaped.

The Italians were first seen at the Kingsbury farm early in the evening, when they stopped and asked for a drink of water. Obtaining this they began dickering for the purchase of a chicken. Being told that there were no chickens for sale they purchased a number of eggs and a quantity of bread. They tendered a ten-dollar bill in payment for a purchase of one dollar. Being told that there was not sufficient change in the house the Italians produced a five-dollar bill and were given four dollars in return. They insisted on buying a chicken, claiming that they had a brother who was ill and needed chicken. They finally obtained a chicken and went away. About thirty minutes later they returned and asked for matches. As Mr. Kingsbury turned from the doorway to grant their request four of the visitors followed him into the house while the other stood outside.

"What do you want in here?" asked Kingsbury.

"It's none of your business," was the reply.

At that Kingsbury and his wife were seized.

The money, amounting to a large sum, was taken away by those who escaped. Thirty-five dollars which was sewed in Mrs. Kingsbury's skirt was missed by the robbers.

SHIPS HOGS BY DIVINE WILL

Kansas Farmer Has Some Peculiar Ideas Regarding Filling a Stock Car With Hogs.

Kansas City, Mo.—In a few days A. D. Coleman, of Abilene, Kan., will have another peculiar shipment of hogs at the Kansas City stock yards. In a letter to his commission men here Mr. Coleman says that "Divine will" has ordered him to make a consignment of hogs to market in two 80-foot double-decked cars. He does not specify how many there will be in each car, but says that as soon as the hogs have been unloaded in Kansas City the cars will suddenly disappear. A few weeks ago Mr. Coleman consigned six hogs to this market in two 40-foot stock cars, three hogs to each car. The shipment, he said, was made in accordance with Divine will, and he expected, on arriving in Kansas City to find the cars filled to ordinary capacity, or sixty-five to seventy hogs in each car. His first test of his "revelation," though rather expensive, has not discouraged him in the least.

Mr. Coleman owns a 320-acre farm, well stocked and cared for by a tenant. He works for a neighbor at 50 cents a day, and though repeatedly offered more for his services, refuses to accept it.

Rat Bit Her Leg.

Findlay, Ohio.—While Miss Ila Renninger, a bookkeeper, was taking a nap in an office, a large rat bit her on the left leg above the ankle.

RECIPE FOR PLUM PUDDING

Currents, Orange Peel, Citron, Suet, Bread, Flour, Sugar and Many Other Ingredients Used.

One pound raisins, one pound currents, one-quarter pound candied orange peel, one-quarter pound citron, one-half pound chopped suet, one-half pound stale bread crumbs, one-fourth pound flour, one-half pound brown sugar, one nutmeg, grated, one tablespoonful cinnamon, one-fourth teaspoonful allspice, one-half pint brandy, eight eggs. Wash and dry currents, cut citron and orange peel fine, stone raisins. Mix all dry ingredients together. Beat eggs; pour them over dry ingredients, add the brandy, and mix thoroughly. Pack into greased molds and boil six hours at time of making and three hours when wanted for use. Serve with brandy sauce.

Brandy Sauce.—One-fourth cup butter, one cup sugar, two tablespoonfuls brandy, yolks of two eggs, one-half cup of milk or cream, whites of two eggs. Cream butter, add sugar gradually, then brandy slowly, well beaten yolks, and milk or cream. Cook over hot water until it thickens as a custard; pour on the beaten whites. Serve at once.

CATSUP THAT WILL NOT SPOIL

Do Not Use Tin or Iron While Making Relish, Wooden Spoon and Porcelain Are the Best.

Here is a catsup that will keep its color because no spices are used to darken it. The vivid scarlet catsup of commerce is colored. For two pecks of ripe tomatoes allow four large onions, six sweet red peppers, or four if they are exceptionally strong, two cupfuls sugar and one quart vinegar. Wash the tomatoes and cook long enough for them to become soft, then put through a strainer to take out the seeds. Do not use tin or iron while making catsup.

A wooden spoon, and porcelain or granite kettles and strainers are best. Cook until the pulp begins to thicken, then add the onions chopped fine or grated, the peppers, chopped, and the salt and vinegar. Cook until of the right consistency and seal in sterilized bottles.

A teaspoonful of olive oil or brandy, poured in the neck of the bottle before sealing, prevents mold or souring.

Banana Jelly.

Make coffee jelly as follows: Soak one-half package of gelatin in one-half cup of cold water two minutes; add one cup white sugar, one and one-half cups boiling water and one cup of clear strong coffee; stir until dissolved, then let it stand until cool; fill a dish with sliced bananas, turn the liquid over it, put it where it will harden. When ready to serve turn out as any jelly and pile whipped cream around it, or it may be eaten with ordinary cream turned over it.

About the House.

When putting away the silver tea or coffee pot which is not used every day, lay a little stick across the top under the cover. This will allow the fresh air to get in, and prevent mustiness.

Clean oilcloth with a wet towel pinned over a stiff broom and rub with long sweeping strokes.

To keep varnished woods looking fresh and bright rub it thoroughly with oil from time to time.

Stephanie Omelette.

Two ounces granulated sugar with the yolks of four eggs beaten to a foam; the whites of four eggs beaten to resemble snow and very light; one coffee-spoonful of granulated sugar or sirup. Place in a well buttered pan, then place pan in hot oven. From connection can then be placed in the pan and pan overturned. In the plates can be placed citron or vanilla to the taste. The omelette must be served immediately.

Warning to Railroad Men

E. S. Bacon, 11 East St., Bath Me., sends out this warning to railroads: "A conductor on the railroad, my work caused a chronic inflammation of the kidneys, and I was miserable and all played out. A friend advised Foley Kidney Pills and from the day I commenced taking them, I began to regain my strength. The inflammation cleared and I am far better than I have been for twenty years. The weakness and dizzy spells, are a thing of the past and I highly recommend Foley Kidney Pills." O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Co.

Continuous Advertising

IS WHAT makes your name familiar and identifies it with your business. Continuous—never turning your back to give the other fellow a chance when you are not looking. If you advertise occasionally, somebody else may share in the benefit of your expenditure by chancing to be in when you are out.
